

Andrzej has been involved in climate change and energy policy issues since 2001. He served as a Cabinet member and advisor on climate change to the Polish Minister of Environment during the Polish EU Presidency. Andrzej's previous posts included managing international cooperation at the Polish National Centre for Emission Management (KASHUE-KOBiZE) – a government agency, directing the Brussels office of the Center for Clean Air Policy and developing carbon business at HVB Bank in Germany. Andrzej has been one of the Poland's lead experts during the negotiations of the EU climate and energy package, as well as in the UNFCCC process.