

Erwin Hofman MSc. MT. is a graduate in environmental and infrastructure planning from the University of Groningen (Netherlands) and the Bandung Institute of Technology (Indonesia). He worked as an intern for Euroconsult Mott MacDonald at projects for the Indonesian Ministry of Public Works, related to regional development and public participation. Since May 2013 he works for JIN on projects on climate policy, green growth and renewable energy.